HORI2M - Introduction

HORI2M - Admission

For the specific conditions of this program : refer to the French version

General and specific admission requirements for this program must be satisfied at the time of enrolling at the university..

HORI2M - Information

Learning outcomes

At the end of the 2nd level, the student will have strong linguistic, historical and cultural skills in the area of study he has chosen ("Proche-Orient et Egypte antiques", "Byzance et Orient-chrétien", "Islam et Monde arabe", "Inde et Extrême-Orient"). This course will help him to follow a scientific study path, in particular by committing to the 3rd level, or to take a more directly professional path (teaching, museum worker, guide for cultural visits, etc.). A strong emphasis is placed on the student's ability to analyse oriental texts in a critical fashion in their original language.

Teaching method

The different paths available to students allow them to shape their own training in line with their skills and interests and, in this way, to have relative autonomy in their training programme. The various different areas of study and the research focus together provide a series of coherent and high quality courses.

Methods to promote interdisciplinarity : in the 120 credit Master's programme, the choice of the option course (directed towards the interdisciplinary courses in the programme which complement the purely philological part of the training) is a key factor

Variety of teaching methods (including e-learning) : use of multi-media for classical languages.

Range of learning situations : individual and group work, seminars and lectures. Support courses for the dissertation.

Evaluation

Written and oral exams aim to measure skills acquired and the student's communicative know-how and aptitude.

Some subjects, geared towards developing research skills and skills in personal criticism, are the subject of presentations and discussions spread over the year (permanent assessment).

Courses are evaluated according to current university regulations (see General Examination Regulations). Students may find further information on specific evaluation methods in the course descriptions.

Mobility and/or Internationalisation outlook

If the Erasmus exchanges normally take place during the 3rd year of the bachelor, students on the master 120 can take 30 credits in a university outside of the Belgian French Community :

- Institut Catholique de Paris;
- Université Lyon-2 Lumière;
- Università degli Studi di Lecce;
- Istituto Universitario di Napoli;
- Universiteit Gent.

In line with the UCL - KULeuven agreement, courses can be taken in Leuven, in particular in Egyptology, sumerology, etc.

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

Other accessible masters :

At the end of the master 120, each focus in the Master in Ancient Languages and Literatures: Oriental Languages can be obtained in a new year of 30 credits only.

Students may also go on to the Master's degree (120) in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics or the Master's degree (60) in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics, if they have taken :

- the Bachelor's degree in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics, or

- the minor in Antiquity : Egypt, the East, Greece, Rome, or
- the minor in Latin studies.

For more detailed information, please consult the admission criteria for the Master's degree (120) in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics or the Master's degree (60) in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics.

Teacher training

At the end of the 120 credit Master's degree, students who have not taken a teaching focus may go on to the teacher training programme for higher education. [Teacher Training Certificate \(upper secondary education\) - Ancient Languages and Literatures : Classics \[30.0\]](#)

Accessible doctoral training :

OPTIONAL COURSES [15.0]

To be chosen from the Faculty or University programmes, with the agreement of the secretary of the examining board. Students must check with the lecturer in charge that they may follow the course(s) in question. If certain courses are available in the research focus, in the core subjects or in another option course, the credits may not exceed 6 with each of these headings.
